

1

1. "You shouldn't smoke, she said. "It's bad for your health"
2. "Can I borrow your pen please?" he said to her. "I need to write something"
3. "Please don't talk." said the teacher. "This is a test"
4. "Why don't you turn off the TV?" she said to him. "You aren't watching it"
5. "Come to our house tonight, Mary." he said. "Jim wants to see you."
6. "Have you read your newspaper?" he asked her. "I want to look at it."
7. "The baby should be asleep." she said "It's ten o'clock"
8. "I don't want any more cakes." she said. "I've had enough."
9. "Don't play near the road" their mother said. "It's too dangerous"
10. "I like Susan" he said "She's very friendly."
11. "I'm teaching Jane's class" she said "She's on hot day this week"
12. "Sarah would like to have the house" he said. "She's lived here a long time."
13. "You could become famous, June" he said. "You're a very good singer."
14. "Are you going to take the job?" he asked her. "Or will you wait for a better one?"
15. "Can you phone Julie?" she asked me. "I heard she has had a fight with Mark"
16. "Do you know when May will be back?" she asked. "She's been away all week"
17. "Do you think we should try this new restaurant tonight?" he asked his wife. "I've heard it's very good"
18. "If anyone phones" she said. "tell them I won't be here until tomorrow."
19. "I'd love to go to Venice" she said. "I've never been there"
20. "Don't ask Simon how to use the computer" she said. "He doesn't know a thing about them"
21. "I must go now" said Samantha. "or I might miss the bus."
22. "I'm sorry I didn't phone you yesterday" said Charlotte. "I had to visit my aunt."

2

Zastosuj w każdym zdaniu inny zwrot wprowadzający:

1. "I'll be home early."
2. "Press the button first."
3. "I didn't copy John's work"
4. "He never tells the truth"
5. "I'm so good at maths."
6. "She's so beautiful."
7. "Peter is unable to attend the meeting tomorrow"
8. "No. I won't tell you what happened."
9. "I think you should go home."
10. "That's how you fix it."
11. "You really ought to go home."
12. "This is how I began my career."
13. "Yes, I told them everything."
14. "I'm sorry I shouted."
15. "You lied to me."
16. "I'd like you to carry the bag."
17. "Don't forget to ask Janet."
18. "Don't touch this wire."
19. "You may go now."
20. "Come on, try it again."
21. "She really must attend more frequently."
22. "Would you like to go to the theatre?"
23. "You mustn't talk during the exam."
24. "Go ahead, enter the race!"
25. "Run immediately!"
26. "Please, please tell me the truth!"
27. "James never told me he was working undercover."
28. "You can take my car."
29. "I won't do it again"

Adapted by Anna Plawecka from Virginia Evans, Use of English Part 1, Egis