

Zdania a grupą modalną w orzeczeniu

I

Zbuduj zdania z orzeczeniem modalnym o podobnym znaczeniu

1. I am sure it was him. = It must...
2. It is possible that Shakespeare wrote it.
3. They worried so much and it was quite unnecessary.
4. It is impossible that she did it.
5. It was your duty to let us know, and you didn't.
6. It was silly of them to put their nose into that business.
7. It is possible that they saw us at the cinema.
8. I am sure he had no motive to kill.
9. He went there and it was wrong.
10. It is certain that she forgot about the meeting.
11. It was needless for us to drive there - writing a letter would have been enough (2 sentences)
12. Perhaps the wallet slipped out of my pocket.
13. He was lucky not to break an arm or leg.
14. I'm sure I didn't leave the umbrella there.
15. She was lucky not to get wet.
19. You were obliged to phone us but you failed to do so.
20. It wasn't necessary to book two rooms.
21. I'm sure something came up and delayed them.
22. It was silly of you to get involved into that quarrel.
23. You had no money and you didn't tell me. Why?
24. If you needed my help it was enough to ask.
25. Why did you do all the calculations by hand? There is a computer for that sort of things.

II

Do podanych sytuacji dodaj swój komentarz z użyciem sugerowanego czasownika.

1. Jim failed his exam. (can't)
2. Everything ended well. (needn't)
3. She missed her train this morning. (must)
4. To our surprise that dangerous-looking dog turned out to be friendly. (needn't)
5. She got very happy when she opened the letter. (might)
6. We heard a loud crash outside. (may)
7. Soon after going out to school she came back in great hurry. (must)
8. I got very irritated when I heard about it at the last moment. (should)
9. He lost his job. (could)
10. Suddenly the light went out in my area. (may)
11. He came back all wet. (can't)
12. The dog started barking. (may)
13. They are offended. (shouldn't)
14. A little girl came back from school crying. (might)
15. It turned out that the noise was made by cats and not thieves. (needn't)
16. A child was playing with matches. (could)
17. He went to a disco without her. (shouldn't)
18. An ambulance stopped in front of the neighbour's house. (might)
19. Very few passed the exam. (must)
20. He says it was me who did it, but, of course he's wrong. (can't)
21. The car stalled in the middle of the crossing. (may)
22. Nobody came to the meeting. (should)
23. He was reelected the chairman of the committee. (must)
24. Our neighbours are selling their house. (could)