

PAST TENSES

1. I had no idea what Fiona (do) since three o'clock.
2. While I (knit) my husband (work) in the garage.
3. I (knit) the pullover for a week when I (decide) to change the pattern.
4. George (carry) the suitcase for a few minutes when he (ask) me to give him a hand.
5. My teacher was disappointed when he (learn) that I (do) those exercises for two hours and (manage) to do only six of them.
6. When I (come) home at seven I (find) out that the children (play) in the garden since four o'clock and that my wife (not come) home from the office by then.
7. My wife asked me how long I (try) to change the bulb.
8. I (live) in Lisbon for ten years and then I (move) to Porto.
9. I (live) in Lisbon for ten years when you visited me for the first time.
10. I (live) in Lisbon when The Second World War broke out.
11. Tom and I (be) married for three years and a half when our first child was born.
12. When Grace (enter) the bathroom she (realise) someone (use) her towel because it was wet.
13. The room was bright as my husband (paint) it white.
14. Kate looked very upset as she (fail) her final exam.
15. My mother (already iron) my shirt by the time I got back from school.
16. I (enter) the room, (open) the window, (look) out of it and (see) your car in the street.
17. The police (follow) him since the very moment they (start) to suspect him.
18. I soon (realise) how lucky I (be) to survive the crash.
19. Our uncle (return) from a business trip and (find) out that someone (break) into his house.
20. I wanted to talk to the bank manager but his secretary told me he (just go) out.
21. We (call) the suppliers to ask why the goods we (order) (not arrive) by Wednesday.
22. Eventually I (find) the answer to the problem I (work) on for several days
23. We (decide) to continue producing the toy which (be) so popular) among children for years.
24. I (play) much better I (expect).
25. We soon discovered we (not take) the right route.
26. Rachel admitted she (be) in love with him.
27. My grandfather (retire) at the age of sixty five after he (work) for nearly forty five years.
28. After they (not promote) her, Grace Wise (decide) to look for another job.
29. Since my old student identity card (expire) I (have) to apply for a new one.
30. After she (fail) the driving test, Beryl decided to give up driving lessons.
31. I (not have) to water the flowers as my father (do) it before.
32. We (cannot) spend last weekend in Vienna as my boss said he (want) to see me on Saturday.
33. I (not be) able to read that text because I (not take) my glasses with me.