

SEE

look - to direct your eyes towards someone or something so that you can see them. to search for someone or something. patrzeć see - to notice someone or something using your eyes. to watch something such as a film or television programme. widzieć glimpse - an occasion when you see someone or something for a moment only. rzucić okiem glance - to look somewhere quickly and then look away. rzucić okiem peep - to look at something quickly and secretly, usually from a place where you think you cannot be seen. zerknąć, podlądać peek - to look at something quickly, especially secretly or from behind something. zerknąć gaze - to look at someone or something for a long time, for example because they are attractive or interesting, or because you are thinking of something else. wpatrywać się intensywnie watch - to look at someone or something for a period of time. to look at something such as a television programme or sports event, usually from the beginning to the end. oglądać scowl - to look at someone in an angry way and twist your face into an expression that shows you are angry patrzeć spode łba, patrzec gniewnie squint - to close your eyes slightly and try to see something, either because of a bright light or because your eyes do not work very well. mrużyć oczy, zezować sight - (formal) to see sb or sth suddenly or in a distance dostrzegać z daleka notice - to become conscious of someone or something by seeing them zauważyć stare - to look at someone or something very directly for a long time; it's rude gapić się, wpatrywać się peer - to look very carefully or hard, especially because you are having difficulty in seeing. Przyglądać się badawczo goggle - to look at someone or something in a way that shows you are very surprised or impressed by them. wytrzeszczać oczy gape - to look at something or someone with your mouth open because you are very surprised. gapić się glare - to look at someone or something in a very angry way. piorunować wzrokiem wink - to quickly close and open one eye as a sign to someone, for example a sign that what you have just said is a joke or a secret. puścić oczko blink - to close your eyes for a very short time and quickly open them again, which is natural for your eyes that need moisturising mrugać ogle - to keep looking at someone in a way that is too obvious, because you think they are sexually attractive. pożerać wzrokiem leer - to look at someone in an unpleasant way that shows you are sexually interested in them. patrzec pożądliwie survey - to look at or consider someone or something carefully, especially in order to form an opinion about them, to examine something to see how good its condition is. przyglądać się, obserwować discern - to see sth especially sth that is far away or not very clear dostrzegać perceive - to understand or think about something in a particular way. postrzegać