

PAST AND PRESENT TENSES

Wstaw odpowiednią formę w PRESENT SIMPLE, PRESENT CONTINUOUS, PAST SIMPLE, PAST CONTINUOUS, PRESENT PERFECT, PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS, PAST PERFECT lub PAST PERFECT CONTINUOUS:

1. Who (not be) to the show yet?
2. While they (shoot) this scene all the spotlights went out.
3. He (paint) Jane's portrait for two hours when I (come) to see them last night.
4. Ice (melt) when it is heated.
5. Why you (not take) her to the opera last night?
6. Mark (be) to the Vatican before, so he showed us everything.
7. I was indignant. She (accuse) me of theft for half an hour before they (manage) to stop her.
8.you (go) there last week? - No, I (not be) there since my father died.
9. It (snow) all day yesterday.
10. Don't interrupt him. He (speak) on the phone at the moment.
11. When she came back from the office, her father already (be) at home.
12. By that time I (go) by coach for 24 hours but I wasn't very tired.
13. Who (be) late yesterday morning?
14. Listen, someone (tap) on the ceiling. Can you hear it?
15. He actually knew that the delegation (be) waiting for him for an hour.
16. It's 10 a.m. and you already (send) her five messages this morning.
17. While he (watch) video, I was listening to my favourite records.
18. Before we reached the stadium, the tennis match already (begin).
19. John has a steady job. He always (leave) home at 7 and is back at 5.
20. Jim (try) to learn how to play the flute for months but he (not succeed) yet.
- 21..... he (drive) his lorry for twelve hours when he (crash) into a post?
22. I no sooner (get up) than the phone (ring). It was my sister.
23. He (send) her a postcard every day for the last two weeks.

24. I (be) to the cinema five times this month.
25. He came to the conclusion that she (be) his deadliest enemy for years.
26. He usually (read) a book at night when he can't fall asleep.
27. We (fly) to Warsaw this time yesterday.
28. I haven't talked to my parents since we (quarrel).
29. It wasn't a sensible decision. By the time we (decide) to get married we (know) each other for two weeks.
30. Kate was very happy because Paul (send) her chocolates every day for three weeks.
31. Look, that ship (sink).
32. Somebody (use) my English book! Two pages are missing!
33. I (not understand) the poem until the Polish teacher explained it to me.
34. By that time we already (climb) for three hours.
35. The lesson hardly (begin) when the headmaster (enter). He wanted to talk to us.
36. It (say), 'No smoking.'
37. Liz (read) his chronicles since breakfast but she (not finish) them yet.
38. She (walk) with her dog when I (see) her two hours ago.
39. He (have) a Ford for six years before he bought a big jeep.
40. My sister (learn) Russian for nine months but she can't even translate a simple text yet. Besides, she also (learn) Japanese now.