

POLITICS

Ćwiczenie 1.

W zadaniach A i B przyporządkuj podane wyrazy do odpowiednich miejsc.

A What type of government does each of these countries have?

Poland the United Kingdom the United States

1. is a constitutional monarchy.
2. a republic.
3. a federal republic.

B What people and institutions belong to each of the branches of power?

government	MPs	senators
judge	parliament	Supreme Court
ministers	prime minister	tribunal

The executive branch
The judicial branch
The legislative branch

Ćwiczenie 2.

Uzupełnij podanymi wyrazami zdania w części A i B.

A candidate leander opposition run term
election majority political spokesperson vote

1. In Poland the president is elected for a five-year
2. Which did you..... for in the last presidential?
3. The of largest part in the Parliament has appointed a new to communicate with media.
4. The part is already preparing to take over power next year.
5. Some of my neighbours keep telling me to for Parliament.
6. The latest government decisions did not gain a in the Parliament.

B ambassadors counciliors flag town council
national anthem embassy mayor trade unions

1. The Polish has only two colours, white and red.
2. The Polish was written by Józef Wybicki more than two hundred years ago.
3. As a member of the organization, I met several, one ex-prime minister, and two presidents at the meeting in the British last week.
4. If Cracow is your home town, you should know the of Cracow.
5. In Poland have a very strong position in economic and political life.